

Galilee To Grayling Cross Built

Dennis Patton of Grayling is shown constructing the replica of the Cross Christ died on for use in the upcoming Walk with Jesus April 8 through 12 from Detroit to Grayling.

The Cross will be carried the 200 miles by volunteer walkers of all denominations from around the State during the Holy Week observance to symbolize the New Life that is possible to each of us by following the teachings and example of the Carpenter from Galilee.

The group will also carry an authentic Crown of Thorns from the Via Dolorosa in Jerusalem along which Jesus was forced to carry His Cross during the first Holy Week nearly two thousand years ago. Holy Water from the River Jordan brought to America for this Walk by a delegation from Michigan will also be carried by the walkers. The River Jordan runs between the Sea of Galilee (about the size of Lake Michigan) and the Dead Sea, some 60 miles to the south. Jesus was baptised by John in the River Jordan.

Area residents, young and old, who would like to either walk or help drive or serve as voluntary babysitters are invited to sign up at the Grayling State Bank.

Boating Safety Class

Untrained youngsters 12 through 15 years old can take the first step toward "making the scene" on Michigan waterways by signing up now for this State's free Pleasure Boating course to be held this spring in Grayling.

Certified instructor Timothy Coe of the Crawford County Sheriff's Dept. points out that youths in this age group must successfully complete this course for beginning boaters before they can operate motorboats of six horsepower or more without adult supervision.

He quickly adds that while the accent is on training youngsters local boaters of all ages are welcome to enroll for the Pleasure Boating course which has been worked up by the Department of Natural Resources, Marine Safety Section.

Those interested in making their boating safer and more fun-filled next season may enroll at the Crawford County Sheriff's Office or by calling the office at 348-6341.

The first of five one-hour training sessions is scheduled for April 15, 1974 at 3:30 p.m. in the New High School.

Persons on deck for the entire training program will gain valuable know-how on safety afloat, boat handling, Michigan's watercraft regulations and first-aid. They also will pick up important pointers on selecting safe combinations of boats and motors.

There is no charge for the course and everyone who passes will receive a pocket-size certificate of completion.

Easter Seal Coffee Day—A pair of pretty ladies met recently to put the finishing touches on plans for the first annual "Easter Seal Society Coffee Day." Restaurants throughout the state will serve free coffee on Good Friday, April 12, to anyone wearing a B.A.C. (Brace A Child for a Buck A Cup) button. The B.A.C. buttons will be sold to patrons by restaurant personnel for two weeks prior to "Coffee Day." All proceeds will be given to the Easter Seal Society whose services are offered in every county in Michigan and annually assists 10,000 handicapped children and adults in the state. "Coffee Day" is being sponsored by the Michigan Restaurant Association.

Guardsmen To Return In Force During 1975-76

Following a decrease in National Guard training at Camp Grayling this summer, it was announced this week by Col. Edmund Rutkowski, Camp Commander, that during the summer of 1975, over 25,000 troops will be here, and in 1976 in excess of 28,000 guardsmen will use the camp's facilities.

Col. Rutkowski, along with Gen. John Taylor, Assistant Adjutant General, and Col. Russell Hagerman, Director of Operations and Training, Mich. National Guard, returned Saturday following three days at 5th Army Headquarters in San Antonio, Texas, where plans were made for training during the next two years.

As a result of the meeting, Col. Rutkowski stated, that Camp Grayling obtained combat elements to train here in excess of 25,000 in '75, and in excess of 28,000 in '76.

During 1975, Guardsmen from Ohio, Illinois, Missouri, Indiana and Michigan will be here for two week periods.

In 1976, the same states will use the facilities, and will also include the entire 38th Infantry Division, with nearly 15,000 guardsmen in their 2 week summer encampment.

Gen. Taylor, Col. Rutkowski and Col. Hagerman, will return to San Antonio for three days, April 10-13, to finalize support elements for these two years.

Drug Analysis Program—We are starting a Drug Analysis Anonymous program for the parents of children in Crawford County. We will determine what the ingredients of a suspicious drug, powder or plant material are with no risk to parents or their children. If the parent wants such an analysis done, he should take it to the Sheriff Department office in the County Courthouse, where a Deputy or Secretary will give him or her an identification number. Later, usually less than one week, he can call me, give the identification number and get the results. We also want it known that we have volumes of literature on all kinds of drugs, including alcohol, and a drug display in the front of the department office, which should aid everyone in acquiring knowledge on the drug problem. We hope this program will benefit our County and Community.

To Serve You Better

On March 25th Stressline made a fresh new start. A new group of community volunteers were trained and ready to go. A new location and system for receiving calls had been established, and to make the whole event more meaningful a new name was chosen for the old stressline organization.

One may ask, "What's in a name?" or, "A name is a name is a name." The word Stress-line suggested to us that a person need to be in a serious crisis before they could call us. Sometimes people need to talk to someone when the problem they are having is still small and manageable. So we wanted a name that would be more apt to suggest to the people of the community just what it is that we do. After a long discussion we decided that what we do most is listen-active, caring, listening. We decided that what we are involved members listening to what others have to say.

So on this day let us introduce to you, I.M. Listening, a community service center designed to serve you better. I.M. Listening. 348-8612, 6 p.m. - 10 p.m. daily.

We would like to serve you even better, but we need volunteers. If you would like to help call us and join up.

A Proper Concern

The wife of a California newspaperman, with her husband's interested assistance, tested local grass roots opinion by circulating a petition. It received a friendly reception and ready signature from impressive numbers of people to whom it was presented.

The petition, in a "...spirit of Fair Play and concern of the nation to keep a clean house in our governmental process..." requests that an investigation be made of every Senator and Congressman, their deputies, aides and appointees, beginning with the present Senate Watergate Committee to determine if they have anything in their background which would make them unfit to serve. The investigation would include a look into their income taxes, campaign contributions, medical and psychiatric background, bribery, felonies, and "...all other acts of moral turpitude and chicanery." Signed petitions, or copies of them, were sent to members of Congress including those on the Watergate investigation committee.

It is not likely that much will come of this, and it was not intended that much should. The purpose of the petition was to indicate that many people in the United States are concerned that no one in this country, including the President of the U.S., should be the victim of a lynch mob, a hanging judge or biased jury. Scandal and catastrophe make a better news story than anything else, and Watergate has been a gold mine of this kind of event. But still, many of the American people are concerned that the fitness of their President not be determined solely by major news media and political investigation.

The People's Choice

Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona has always been noted for forthrightness in discussing major issues. When asked during an interview with editors of U.S. News & World Report whether he favors an excess-profits tax on oil companies he mined no words in his reply.

He does not believe there are any undue profits in oil and added, "In fact, I would be very much in favor of increasing incentive allowances so people will drill more holes in the ground. This is the big objection I have to what we've been doing on Capitol Hill. All we've done hasn't put one gallon of gasoline in anybody's tank. Nobody's gone out and started drilling...So far, all we've been arguing about in the Senate is how to impose regulations and create new staffs and new bureaus and add to the woes of people who are honestly trying to get more fuel for the American people."

Everyone has a right to worry about the price of oil just as they do about the price of everything else in this inflation-ridden era. But high prices are the penalty paid in any country where government habitually spends more money than it receives in taxes. Trying to escape the penalty through controls creates scarcities. Prices must go up to meet rising costs. If people are more concerned about prices and profits than about adequate oil supplies, they will find politicians quick to respond with a wave of regulations to hold prices down temporarily. But this will not produce one more gallon of gasoline. It will merely add to the unemployment rolls as well as to the bureaucracy in Washington.

Only the oil industry can produce petroleum, and it can only do so if it is provided the incentives and the opportunities for profits commensurate with the risks. The choice is for the people to make. In America, public opinion is the ultimate factor in setting national policies under which the private enterprise system must live or die.

CHASKA, MINN., VALLEY HERALD: "I'm like so many Americans. I hate to see the millions and millions of dollars being spent by congress for guns and tanks and ships and other war-making equipment but it's pretty evident if we don't have a giant capacity along those lines we'll be a part of a Chinese or Russian five-year plan sometime in the future."

SUMMIT, MISS., SUN: "You let government control prices because they are too high, and then you'll let them control supplies because you have shortages, and then whether you want to let them or not, they'll control you."

Penalties For Late Filing And Payment

The tax law provides penalties for taxpayers who fail to file a tax return or pay their taxes on time. If you file a return late, a penalty of 5 per cent per month of the tax due will be added to your taxes-up to a total of 25 per cent of the tax due.

The law requires you to pay a penalty of half of 1 per cent per month if you file your return on time but fail to pay your taxes on time. This penalty for late payment is also limited to 25 per cent of the tax due. In any one month during which a taxpayer has failed both to file and to pay, the total penalty cannot exceed 5 per cent. Neither penalty will be imposed if you can show there was a good reason for your failure to file or pay on time. Regardless of your reason, however, you will be charged 6 per cent annual interest on taxes not paid by the due date and there is no limit to the amount of interest that can accrue.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

On Demonism

We are in the midst of the greatest revival of Demonism in our history. It is reported that there are now 10 million witches in the United States alone. Within 10 years the production of occult books has increased from half a dozen to approximately 500 different varieties. Television has presented witches as humorous and delightful. "The Exorcist" is the primary subject of the movie world. Even our music is effected by such songs as "Aquarius." The Demand for horoscopes has increased until huge electronic computers are now in operation to meet the increased demand. The revival covers every spectrum of the occult from Ouija Boards and witches to Satan worship. The extent of such a revival is not just in the big cities, there is a coven of witches and warlocks within 30 miles of Grayling. I cannot confirm the numerous reports of occult practices in Grayling.

What led to this Demonic revival? Did this just happen by chance? No. There is a pattern of development we may all observe. Since the turn of this century liberals began to infiltrate the colleges and seminaries of our leading denominations. Their primary objective was to destroy the authority of the Bible, and therefore under mine the foundation of our religious institutions. With this job accomplished, they continued to deny more and more fundamental truths. The capstone of liberalism was laid when these liberal theologians publicly declared "God is Dead."

At this time there was a denial of all supernatural forces, both good and evil by many liberals. One day one of these same liberal theologians announced publicly that he had contacted his departed son through a spirit medium. He went on to write a book on the subject. Within a short period of time many such books were written and the revival was well underway.

Many of us alive today have observed the rejection of a divine supernatural, to the rejection of all supernatural.

and now back to the acceptance of a supernatural being apart from the God of the Bible.

We are just beginning to see what happens to a society which has rejected the God of the Bible. There are satanic churches established in every major city where a satanic bible is the authority. A book which categorically denies every ethical Standard Christianity teaches. Young people are being taught how to sell their soul to Satan.

The first contact with the occult is usually out of curiosity. Then the contact is continued because there is real evidence of a supernatural power at work. Soon the young person is in the grasp of satanic control.

The authority of the Bible is the foundation stone of the boundary between the domain of Christ and the domain of Satan. Unbelief of God's Word is the evidence of a false religion; the sure test of a false prophet; the first step in Demonism; and the assurance of Eternal damnation. Rev. 21:8. "Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way." Psalm 119:128.

Pastor Barnett

SUNDAY'S SERMON

Life

The great miracle of life only concerns most of us when birth or death calls it to our attention. Until we have some reason to do so, we do not consider the wonderful workings of the heart and the vital organs which enable us to function as thinking, acting human beings.

Some who are familiar with the workings of the human body say that we begin to die the moment we are born. Others say we are growing in some way until the moment when we breathe our last. For some of us, the latter interpretation is preferable. If we cut a finger, we treat it, keep it clean, and know that soon it will heal. But when it doesn't heal properly, we become concerned. Something is wrong—what we have always taken for granted is not taking place.

So consider life for what it is, a wonderful experience. Make friends with God and enjoy life to the fullest. Wherever you stand in life, at the beginning or near the end, make the most of today.

Jack Pine's Stump

Friday afternoon while deeply engrossed in a book about a terrifying F-84 flight through a thunderstorm, the phone rang. The intrusion on my complete absorption, as the iced-up fighter had dropped to 3000 feet, was deeply resented. But it was a relative in Ohio who subscribes to the Avalanche and he wanted to know just where in hell Jack Pine was last week. I simply told him it wasn't there, a fact he already knew. But he wasn't to be put off, so I explained that my usual habit of waiting until the last minute to do anything had caught up with me and when that last minute to do Jack Pine came, I was in the hospital, and that I had just been released two hours before, was tired as hell, and was iced-up at 3000 feet in an out-of-control Thunderstreak. In the silence which followed, I managed to read two more sentences. His voice through the carphones (telephone) brought me back. "Cut the crap and tell me what happened!" So I did. He was satisfied, said he would look forward to this column, and hung up. I went back to the fighter and the storm, and somehow managed to get the damn jet under control again and in level flight. Ice came off in great chunks and slowly power returned to almost normal. I started to climb. More ice came off, and finally I broke through at 35,000 feet. Clear Starry night above, power at 100 percent and, miraculously, the radio was working again. The jet-down, GCA approach and landing were normal and once again things were well.

JP.

Maybe there is a comparison between the oneness of the man and his plane and what happened to me. But those who have ever flown, particularly in storms, know what it is like to lose your power, your altitude, your communications, be buffeted by incredibly strong winds, be blinded by flashing lightning, covered with ice and to fight unresponsive controls. The instrument panel becomes a blur of wildly gyrating indicators. You fight it alone, and, suddenly, you get response, level flight, power. And you start to climb.

JP.

I awoke in the hospital and felt as though I was in the midst of some ancient Spanish treasure fleet. The nurses, with their starched caps and white uniforms, looked like galleons under full sail. You know, a galleon was quite a ship in its time. Its foredeck was fairly high and proud, its midship section a bit low-slung, but the damned thing had a very high poop deck. Of course all I saw were the sails and the prows.

IN MEMORIAM
Of Debbie Stephan

There's a face that is haunting us ever,
There's a voice that we're longing to hear,
There's a smile we'll remember forever,
Though we try to forget every tear.
There's a sad but sweet remembrance.
There's a memory fond and true,
There's a token of affection, dear,
And heartaches still for you.

Later, sitting up, they didn't look like galleons at all, but the very friendly, efficient nurses, nurses aides, etc. which they were. The many patients I talked with later all agreed: Mercy Hospital was the best-staffed place we had ever seen.

The next day a man I know at the Archery was moved into the next bed. He'd never been in a hospital before and was scheduled for surgery the next morning. When his doctor came in later, "Doc" Irving McIsaac was talking with me. After the doctor left, Irv and I got into a loud discussion as to when the doctor had gotten his license to practice medicine. We both agreed he didn't have one. Dick, my room-mate, turned as white as his sheets. He was a nice guy and a lot of fun. I wish him and his great family well.

I can never thank the many people who came to visit, sent cards, candy, books or flowers. Nor can they ever know what their visits meant. Or a lot of other things they did. I remember one time there was a man and two women sitting in the room. Years ago we had all worked together. I lay back, listening, as the familiar voices and laughter brought back memories of happier times for all of us. I closed my eyes, and for an instant - just an instant - I thought I heard another voice too. It was a very happy instant.

JP.

Overhead, the skies had cleared and the stars twinkled on the storm battered Thunderstreak chocked in its revetment, its instrument panel dark and quiet. And inside the BOQ, the weary pilot slept well.

JACK PINE

your week ahead by DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: April 7 to April 13

ARIES

Mar. 21 - Apr. 19

Shore up your mood; social activities are favorable. What is more, things that happen during this cosmic cycle—will trigger a lasting influence throughout the Summer.

TAURUS

Apr. 20 - May 20

Listen well, Taurus! As far as the opposite sex is concerned, it's time to take an objective look at what's going on. Meaning? Be careful, extremely careful, of any committals.

GEMINI

May 21 - June 20

Already, planets are aligning to give you a shot in the arm. Self reliance, self confidence and a surge of ambition should put you ahead of competition.

MOONCHILD

June 21 - July 22

It's the old game of "passing the buck!" Mistakes made by others might find you making several unusual sacrifices. Keep your own routine in order.

LEO

July 23 - Aug. 22

Boredom with daily routine, during this cosmic cycle, might find you at odds with persons in authority. Incidentally, at this time, you'll be ultrasensitive toward the other sex.

VIRGO

Aug. 23 - Sept. 22

Persons surrounding you will be reflecting your very own mood. Meaning? The indifference shown by your associates, portrays your own attitude.

LIBRA

Sept. 23 - Oct. 22

There's no protection or rules, in the game of love. So? It's important, extremely important, that you work at improving your relationship with the opposite sex.

SCORPIO

Oct. 23 - Nov. 21

Added responsibility, possibly in the form of authority, is coming your way, nevertheless, this week's events will bring you little, very little, popularity.

SAGITTARIUS

Nov. 22 - Dec. 21

Start shaking hands "in a circle." In other words, make friends and recruit allies. Apparently, clandestine activities and unseen forces will work against your popularity.

CAPRICORN

Dec. 22 - Jan. 19

Added responsibilities might cause you to ponder about the future. New duties will not alter or disturb your secret long term plans.

AQUARIUS

Jan. 20 - Feb. 18

Odd planetary configurations indicate: if you don't get in a few "brownie" points with a superior—someone else will! Bluntly, look out for "A-1" this week!

PISCES

Feb. 19 - Mar. 20

It's a bad case of self-pity! No person or event, according to your chart is going to please you. Meaning? This week, you are at a low ebb, emotionally.

A week-end of entertainment, fun, and harmonizing was enjoyed by members of the Roscommon Chapter of Sweet Adelines on March 22nd-24th when they took part in the 1974 Regional Competition in Grand Rapids. "It's a Small World" was the theme of the Northern Region No. 2 convention, which was hosted by the Coldwater and Grand Rapids chapters, and was carried out by a delightful Disney theme.

Out of twenty-four competing choruses, the Coldwater Chapter placed first, followed by second place Livingston Lakes, and Flint Chapter, third. Livingston Lakes also won the Mardi Gras award for small choruses. Out of eleven quartets competing, the Chord Motor Company from Metro "D" chapter placed first; second place were the Sound Stylists from the Mason and Flint Chapters, and the Northern Naturals from Traverse City Chapter placed third. The Milltown Misses quartet from Millington Mills Chapter won the Novice Award.

The Roscommon chapter currently has twenty-eight members, and this year is celebrating twenty years of barber-shop harmonizing. The following members are from Grayling: Kathy Blaine, Donna Denton, Sharon Huss, Thelma Hunter, Sherry LaMay, Marge Len, Carolyn MacLean, Ruth Ann Meaker, Nancy Nunn, Donna Thomson and Loretta Whaley. The girls will soon be selling tickets for an afghan with a decorated candle as second prize. Anyone is welcome to visit a rehearsal. Just call Loretta Whaley at 348-7143 or any other member.

"If It Fittz . . ."*Golfing with DiMaggio*By Jim Fitzgerald

Cast your bread upon the waters and it may come back spread with caviar. That's how I got this sunburned nose . . .

Many years ago I removed a thorn from the paw of a high school freshman. "Go forth and write me some school sports news," I told him, and he did. Thus was Chuck Werle launched on a career of journalism that took him from the Lapeer County weekly to the Milwaukee Journal.

And today he has realized the dream of every newspaper reporter. He is out of the newspaper business and is a public relations executive in Miami, Florida. He has a home with a pool and his name is engraved on hundreds of memo pads.

"C'mon down," he phoned the other week. "You can play in our Tony Lema Memorial celebrity-pro golf tournament on Marco Island. Enjoy a week of great fun and marvelous weather. You and your wife can stay in the most luxurious hotel you've ever seen. There'll be a big dinner-dance with Harry James playing."

Which sounded pretty good. And then he added the magic words: "Be our guest." My wife and I were on the next plane south, already telling strangers about the virtues of Deltona Corp., owner of Marco Island and Werle's employer.

We had to switch planes at the Miami airport and that's when I first began to fear my visit would make Chuck wish he'd taken his thorn to Blue Cross. We missed our flight to Marco Island. There was another flight a half hour later and we missed that one, too. The reason was a breakdown in the airport's electronic communication system. The Marco Airlines clerk was paging me loudly throughout the airport but I couldn't hear him. There was a busted loudspeaker in the bar into which my wife had dragged me.

Chuck had asked Bill Gentry, head of Marco Island public relations, to meet our plane. Fortunately, Bill used to work for the old Detroit Times so he naturally has a keen understanding of the pitfalls through which an intrepid newsman must often splash while pursuing an assignment. "Don't worry," he phoned Chuck in Miami. "He's a newspaperman and it's a freeloader. He'll be here by cocktail hour," I was.

The next day, bright and early at 3 p.m., I went out to practice for the big golf tourney which was just 48 hours away. My first drive was so powerful it went over a fence surrounding a power plant. The gate was locked. My 2nd drive petered off into a lake where 2 haughty ducks didn't even flinch.

I switched to a pitch and putt course to practice the finer points of my game (and to protect my dwindling supply of golf balls). I blasted out of one sandtrap and into another — the Gulf of Mexico beach. While I was battling my way back on the course, chipping over sunbathers, 18 golfers played through. My wife fell down laughing when she noticed one of the athletes leaving me behind was an old man on crutches. "Yes, but he has his nurse caddying for him," I explained.

My dismay became complete when I learned people would be paying $7 a head to watch the tournament. And I would be playing with such touring professionals as Jerry Heard, George Archer and Bobby Nichols. And such celebrities as Joe DiMaggio, Joe Garagiola, Garo Yepremian and Don Shula. And each player would be introduced on the first tee, over a microphone, while hundreds watched. And I would have to get up at 6 a.m. the morning after Harry James . . .

I did the only honorable thing. I inserted a thorn in my paw and limped to Werle. "Get me out of this tournament," I said, "and I promise to tell the world to get marooned on Marco Island, the finest sun-fun community on earth."

He did and I am: Go to Marco. But if you play golf, be careful you're not trampled by that old man on crutches.

To Whom it may Concern:

Do you know how things like Watergate get started? They start in the basements of little cement block buildings, behind closed doors. Meetings controlled by the politicians and shut to the public.

Last week one of those meetings was held at Camp Grayling. The government took depositions from some of Grayling's most notable residents. You didn't know that? No surprise, few people did. The topic of conversation was Bear Mountain, now that should raise some interest. After all Bear Mountain is Grayling's greatest claim to fame in recent years. Yet, I noticed a funny thing, there was no one there representing us, the people of Grayling. Business went on, but without the people. Oh I'm sorry did I say business?

I briefly attended that meeting, very briefly. After a very short time a gentleman requested that everyone present be identified and state who they represented. When asked who I represented I said myself and that I was here as a concerned resident of Grayling. Not good enough, the same gentleman demanded to go on record. His speech in essence said that some of the statements made here would not come out in open court and although this was not a closed meeting, it should be limited. Aha, this is where crime in politics begins. I could see it all, right here in Grayling. It was true the meeting was limited, no one there but principles in controversy and medium level politicians. A few men gathered together to censor for the many.

Our great country is based on certain principles and beliefs. One of those principles is that there are no closed doors in government. We already realize that this idea has been lost along the way, but it's not too late to stand pat and defend our other basic rights, before they are gone too.

The little sor-ree in building 11B at Camp Grayling last week is just a sample of how our government works today. It's too late to demand entrance to Attorney General Kelley's garden party, but I'll be there for his graduation. I hope you will too.

Bob Howie

Volunteer Aid Program

"Help Me Read"

APRIL IS...spring flowers, warm breezes, kites flying and the return of the summer song birds. April is also National Volunteer Month and on April 21 - 27 we will be celebrating National Volunteer Week.

Hours and hours are volunteered each week in our community by people giving a part of themselves to help others.

In the elementary schools there are many people volunteering who deserve to be recognized. We, the teachers and staff would like to take this opportunity to thank each publicly. The service you are performing for your schools and community is appreciated.

Even though it is impossible to name every volunteer individually in this article, the people in our communities will be able to distinguish them during National Volunteer Week, April 21 - 27, by the special pins they will be wearing. The pins have "VIP...Volunteers - Important People" printed on them, and school volunteers along with many volunteers from other organizations will be wearing them.

When you see someone wearing one of these VIP pins, please take a minute to say thank you! THEIR SERVICES HELP US ALL!

Lottery Drawing For New Cars

Seventy-two new Plymouth Satellites will be given away as bonus prizes to April 11 and April 18 Michigan Lottery ticket holders.

Tickets go on sale next Tuesday (April 2) for the first week's drawing on April 11 when an estimated 36 regular ticket holders will win a new car. The other 36 cars will go to April 18 ticket holders.

The Lottery's "April Shower of Cars" bonus winners will be determined by selection of three bonus numbers at the April 11 drawing in Dowagiac and the April 18 drawing at Lawrence Tech in Southfield. Any April 11 ticket matching two of the three April 11 bonus numbers wins a car, and any April 18 ticket matching two of the three April 18 bonus numbers also wins a car.

The 1974 Plymouth Satellites, Mid-sized cars, come with power steering and power assist brakes, AM radio, white walls, etc., and are identical except for color.

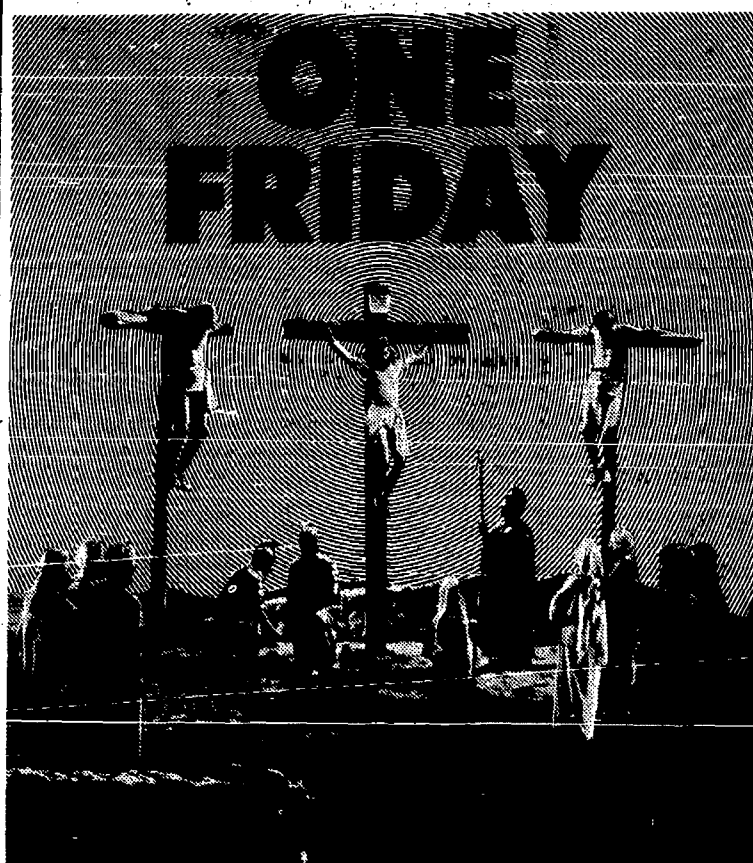

All winners will be invited to a special drive-away ceremony following the second drawing and, in the order their claims were received, can select the car they want.

The bonus prizes offered on April 11 and 18 are in addition to over $2.5 million in regular prizes to be awarded during the same two-week period.

Weekly ticket buyers have a chance to win $25 and a chance to be in a subsequent Million Dollar Drawing, a chance at Super Drawing prizes ranging from $10,000 to $200,000, a chance at $5,000 Second Chance prizes and a chance at bonus prizes (cars)—all for the 50 cent price of a regular lottery ticket.

More than $85 million has been won in prizes since the Lottery began operating in November of 1972.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

When we become mired in the routine of life, one day is like any other. This was just another working-day for most of the people in Jerusalem.

Three men died on Calvary Hill. One of them was the Galilean! Business as usual in Jerusalem. Unless we understand the whole significance of what is happening we pay little attention...

Do you understand what happened that Friday? Do you realize WHO hung on that central Cross? Do you know WHY He died? And FOR WHOM?

There is nothing more necessary in our lives than the deep, personal knowledge of what happened that Friday... and the Sunday following. Come to Church!

Family Receives MIA Bracelet—State Senator John Toepp of Cadillac (right) presents the MIA bracelet he has worn for two years in honor of Lt. Col. Donald King to the missing pilot's daughter, Cindy. Looking on are Mrs. Virginia King and State Senator Oscar Bouwsma of Muskegon. The presentation took place in Gov. Milliken's Capitol office following his enactment of legislation extending state-paid tuition to children of Michigan MIA's. Cindy is the first to be approved for such a scholarship, which she plans to use at Muskegon Community College and Ferris State College. Toepp said he thought the signing of the bill and the fact that Cindy's own MIA bracelet had broken made it an appropriate time to make the presentation to the family. Missing since 1966, King is Michigan's highest-ranking MIA. Mrs. King is a native of Kaleva, in Manistee County, and now lives with her daughter in Muskegon. Senator Toepp sponsored the free tuition legislation and Senator Bouwsma was a co-sponsor.

A.B.W.A. News

the March meeting for ABWA was held at the Holiday Inn Tuesday the 19th. There were 4 guests present and 24 members for a very nice dinner. President Jaclyn Ruddy called our business meeting to order and introduced the evening speaker, Mr. Tom Tarrant and his wife Pat, of Stress Line. There have been articles in the paper recently about Stress Line so everyone should be familiar with it. Tom gave us a very informative talk on some of the problems and future plans of Stress Line. A lot of volunteers are needed to make it run smoothly. A training program is held before anyone works. Then ideally a 4 hour week shift will be all you would do. The object of Stress Line is to lend a helping hand to those in need in our community. Whatever the problem, drugs, alcohol, or just boredom, an understanding ear will be there to listen. The line will be open from 6-10 p.m. The number to call is 348-8612. Eventual plans are for a walk-in center oriented to the youth, but not excluded for adults. As of now Stress Line is financed by The Mental Health Clinic, but as of July 1st it will be on its own. Then the community will be needed even more to make the program a success.

Vocational speaker for the evening was Elaine Harland who certainly loves her job, both of them. Elaine manages the 4 F Club on the AuSable River and that means she's everything from chauffeur to cook and bottle washer. Her second job is the Zoning Board in Crawford County. Elaine was the 1st woman on the board and really enjoys it's duties too. She sounds like a busy gal, but a very contented one.

All the committee chairmen gave reports...Marie Akers reminded us about the Regional meeting April 26, 27 and 28th in South Bend, Ind. Let Marie know if you can go. Social chairman, Mary Noa said two cards and carnation bowls were sent to members in the hospital, Edith Beckow and Eunice Schreiber. Both gals are out of the hospital now, sure hope they are soon fit as a fiddle. Everyone has the new bulletin by now and it sure was a beaut. Carol Sheggrud, Hats off to you! Our Ways and Means chairman, Evelyn Burley was feeling very witty and said, "There are no means left and very few ways." Seriously, she has some ideas up her sleeve. Next month we will have a silent auction, so everyone bring a white elephant to bid on. We will also have a raffle on an afgan in the future and maybe a Vegas night. Maybe we'll be busy. Tanya Pello gave the publicity report on the past tea. I'd like to thank Sally Wert and Lois Morningstar for the nice job on the radio program. I hope everyone heard them. I also told the members about the luncheon in Howell, last Saturday. I was very glad that I had the opportunity to go, thank's Marie.

Marie Akers, Bertha Wojohn and Tanya Pello won the raffle prizes.

Three new members were initiated into our ABWA chapter. Dula Fitzpatrick, Caroline Golnick and Judy Crampton. Welcome aboard ladies. We will be having a couple more women initiated next month. Our chapter is only as strong as it's members and new members mean new ideas. Any working woman is a potential member. All members would be happy to give any information that you would desire, and bring a prospective member to a meeting so she could see us in action.

Two issues were discussed and voted in. Our local dues will be raised to 50c a month and we will have the next 3 meetings in the Holiday Inn.

So next month on the 16th at 6:30 p.m. we will be at the Holiday Inn. The program for the evening has not been planned yet. I will let you know later.

It's that time again. Time to start thinking about our Woman of the Year. Tanya Pello was appointed chairman of the nominating committee. Joan Hall and Capitola Westervelt will be working with her.

We had a very nice turn out this month for the meeting. At the meeting we covered a lot of material. The food was great, and the company even greater. Let's see how many members can come to the next meeting, you know where it will be and when. How about bringing a prospective member? That date again is April 16th, 6:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn. We even had our name on the marquee. See you there?

Tanya Pello, Pblety.

IN APPRECIATION

Dear Sir:

On behalf of my family, we would like to extend our deepest thanks to all the wonderful people of Grayling who were so much help and comfort when my father, Harry Willette, passed away so suddenly on March 19.

Especially helpful was Mr. Derek McEvors of Sorenson Funeral Home; the sisters and Fr. Neils of St. Mary's; Mrs. Linda Sabin and Juanita Bryan who did so much cooking along with many other neighbors; and the women from St. Mary's who prepared the brunch after the funeral.

Also appreciated were the many floral arrangements, the mass cards, sympathy cards, and visits from everyone.

Always will we remember the goodness of so many people from Grayling at our time of deep personal sorrow.

Very Truly Yours,

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rechlin

Inventory of Outdoor Recreation Facilities Announced

Michigan Soil Conservation Districts Incorporated, are preparing to conduct a county-by-county inventory of private and semi-private outdoor recreation facilities. This will be part of the first nation-wide inventory being conducted by the National Association of Conservation Districts.

"The inventory will provide current and reliable data that can be used by district, government and other assisting landowners; state, county, and municipal governments; and developers of one of the biggest and fastest growing industries in America today," states Gordon Bedell, President of the Michigan Association of Soil Conservation Districts, Incorporated.

"Public demand for outdoor recreation opportunities is growing at an unprecedented rate and is evident that an increasingly large share of the nation's requirements will have to be met with privately-owned facilities," continues Bedell. "Governments can not and should not be expected to meet all of the ever-rising demands through public acquisition and development of outdoor sites and facilities," he concluded. After the inventory is completed, it can be used by public agencies to cut down on competition with private facilities.

"The oncoming inventory for Crawford and Roscommon counties will be spearheaded by the local soil conservation district," says Chairman Houghton King, Jr. Assisting the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District with the inventory will be representatives of various federal, state and local agencies and organizations serving as the county coordinating committee.

Present plans call for the completion of the county inventory by mid-April. "At this time," states Chairman King, "The inventory, along with all other county inventories, will be reviewed by the state coordinating committee prior to forwarding to the Washington Office of the Bureau of Outdoor

Bookkeeping Course Offered At Kirtland

Kirtland Community College, in conjunction with Michigan State University, will offer the Michigan Governmental Bookkeeping course for city, village, township and county treasurers, clerks, and bookkeepers on Wednesday evenings 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

This course is designed to provide a working knowledge of bookkeeping as it applies to the Michigan Uniform Accounting System. The Program covers all aspects of governmental record keeping from basic bookkeeping to specialized accounting procedures.

Topics which will be covered include: The theory of debit and credit and other basic theories used in developing bookkeeping procedures.

Bookkeeping procedure in detail, including journals and ledgers recommended for use by local units of government in connection with the Michigan Uniform Accounting System.

The Numbering System, mandatory under the Uniform Accounting System.

Bookkeeping procedures and principles applicable to General Fund, Trust and Agency Fund, and Current Tax Collection Fund.

Persons interested in enrolling should contact Mr. Stanley Evers at Kirtland Community College, 275-5121.

Recreation for compiling and computerizing state and national summaries."

In the early sixties, approximately two-thirds of the nation's soil conservation districts participated in a somewhat similar inventory; however, the study was conducted in a district-wise basis so its usefulness was limited. The current county-by-county inventory aims to achieve 100 percent coverage.

According to Chairman King, the inventory should take little effort of the part of most districts as much of the essential information has already been gathered for their long-range plans. "For the most part, the job of the district will be to bring it all together from all responsible sources and compiling it on a form for easy reference, without necessarily engaging in physical inventory. In essence, it will be putting it all together for the first time ever," concludes King.

Advisory Council To Meet

The Elementary School Advisory Council will be meeting Thursday, April 4th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Grayling Elementary School.

Melvin Nunn, principal of the Grayling Elementary School, and Mr. John Skoglund, principal of the Frederic Elementary School, will be explaining the Ginn Level Reading Program in use at both elementary schools.

All interested persons from both Frederic and Grayling are urged to attend.

2 Receive Law Enforcement Certification

Sergeant Larry Haas and Patrolman Warren Hatfield completed law enforcement certification school at Lansing on March 29, 1974. Certification of all new police officers has been required by the State of Michigan since January 1971. The Michigan Law Enforcement Officers Training Council sets the guidelines for certification of all officers with a minimum of 290 hours of intensive training over a seven week period. The training school which the two city officers attended was conducted on the campus of Lansing Community College and this course consisted of a ten week training period.

Sergeant Haas joined the City Police in December 1972 as senior patrolman and on July 1, 1973 received his promotion to his current position as sergeant. Sgt. Haas is familiar with the local law enforcement, having served previously as a sheriff department deputy for Crawford County.

Warren Hatfield was hired by the city as the third patrolman on January 18, 1974. Warren has been active in City Police activities for almost a year, as he also served the department as an auxiliary officer. Warren was previously employed by the A & P store in Grayling, having served them since 1964. Warren officially began his duties as patrolman on April 1, 1974.

With the certification of these two officers the city now has all their patrolmen certified.

Band Students

James Harris, earned a First Division rating by playing the Hummel Concerto for Trumpet, First Movement, and executing his scales and sight reading almost flawlessly. All soloists are required, besides performing a solo, to play several major and minor scales and play a piece of music that they've never seen before, after being allowed to look at it for just 30 seconds.

Other students playing solos and receiving Second Division ratings were piccolo player Marie Harris, Bob's twin sister; Junior clarinet player, Ellen O'Mara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Mara; and Sophomore Flute player, Leigh Cary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewight Cary. John Duley, Junior percussionist, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Duley, played a snare drum solo and received several fine comments, but no rating due to a technical error.

Ensembles participating and receiving a Second Division rating were a flute duet by Marie Harris and Leigh Cary, and a Saxophone Ensemble comprised of Bonnie Kequom, Senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kequom of Frederic; Senior Dennis Theaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Theaker, Grayling; Junior Gary Beatty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Beatty, Grayling and Terri Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crawford, Grayling. The fact that no students received below Second Division ratings is a real credit to the students involved this year.

and religious of his region to realize and attain their identity as God's family in the bond of a common faith and love.

In a word, therefore, the Vicar has a dual role: to help draw the priests together in their service to the people of the region; and, to provide leadership in the work of the parishes and institutions of the region.

The Vicar will also serve as a special channel of communication in the region. He will be able to reflect the Bishop's overview to the region and the region's ideas, objective and aspirations to the Bishop. The people should also be made to feel free to bring their grievances to the Vicar.

In accord with his position, the Vicar will also serve in the following capacities:

1. He will serve on the Executive Committee of the Presbyterial Council.
2. He will serve as a Diocesan Consultant.

The Vicar will be given the following delegated faculties: To consecrate altars, chalices and patens. To preside at the ceremony for laying of a cornerstone for any ecclesiastical building. To visit each of the parishes of the region. To preside at the installation of pastors when such ceremonies are held, and other parochial duties given to Father Neis are outlined in his letter of confirmation.

Father Neis, a native of Detroit, was ordained a priest at St. Andrew's Cathedral in Grand Rapids by the Most Rev. Francis J. Haas, Bishop of Grand Rapids. He served as assistant pastor at the following churches: St. Patrick's, Portland, St. John Vianney, Grand Rapids, Saints Peter and Paul, Grand Rapids, and St. Andrew's, Grand Rapids.

He was Superintendent of Manistee Catholic Central Junior and Senior High, while being the assistant pastor of St. Joseph's in Manistee. He also served as pastor of Sacred Heart in Victory and pastor of St. Mary's in Manistee.
